

Capitec Financial Health Surveys Privacy Notice

Your participation in the Capitec Financial Health surveys is entirely voluntary and the invitation to participate should not be interpreted as an instruction or requirement. If you choose to participate, then the following terms apply:

The surveys will be used to give Capitec an understanding of how confident people feel about their financial future and their awareness of financial concepts before, during and after the Capitec Financial Health programme. The programme will be aired weekdays from 11 February – 8 March 2019, 9am – 12pm on Ukhozi FM and Lesedi FM and 1 – 3pm on Umhlobo FM.

You agree to us using your answers and/or information provided in the surveys to measure the impact of the Capitec Financial Health programme.

By agreeing to these terms and participating in the surveys, you do not waive any legal rights or remedies you have by law.

Any information obtained from these surveys will be protected and kept confidential. It will only be disclosed for research purposes and will be included in the research results or reports as collective information, not specific to an individual.

You acknowledge and understand that Capitec and its research partners will have access to this information and may use it for the purpose described.
